

Make the most of the Meat Management Industry Awards

The major annual business and social event for the UK meat industry offers the ideal branding opportunity through official sponsorship. Ensure you are a supporter and receive a full 9 month branding promotion for only £3,950 + VAT. We have 16 award categories and you could sponsor one and benefit from a superb marketing package.

Not only is a free table for 8 guests available at the awards dinner but full branding on the stage, the Awards brochure, the menu and the official photographic review. Also included is a full page advert in the prestigious Awards brochure.

Sponsorships for this event are extremely popular and forward planning is needed now to avoid disappointment. No matter the time of year, call us today to discuss your involvement at a future event.

The Awards are supported by many of the major players in the market and the Awards dinner is a highlight of the meat trade calendar attracting around 300 guests or more. Our VIP's over the years at various Yandell dinners have included Jimmy Greaves, Gordon Banks, Patsy Kensit, Martin Kemp, Linford Christie, Sharron Davies, Tom O'Connor, Kyran Bracken and many many more.

Sponsorship packages include a free table at the Awards dinner, regular free publicity in Meat Management magazine and meatmanagement.com. Logo in the Awards magazine and dinner menu, and the dinner AV presentation. Sponsors also present the trophy in the category it sponsors. The prestigious Awards magazine can be viewed in digital format over a full 12 months as well as the printed version.

Rates effective June 2011. All advertising and sponsorship bookings subject to our standard terms and conditions, available on request.

Pictures depict the 2011 Meat Management Industry Awards.